

Chad Davis, Commissioner, Winter Haven, FL

cadavis@mywinterhaven.com, Phone: 863-364-8998

Charles “Chad” Aaron Davis III was elected to Seat Number 4 in 2025. A fourth generation Winter Haven native, Chad graduated from Winter Haven High School and earned a Bachelor of Science in Music Liberal Arts with dual minors in Piano Performance and Philosophy at Trevecca Nazarene University, a Master of Public Policy at Pepperdine University School of Public Policy, and a Juris Doctorate with a Certificate in International and Comparative Law, Pepperdine University Law School.

Chad has also earned fellowships with the John Jay Institute for Faith, Society, and Law, and the Alliance Defending Freedom Blackstone Legal Fellowship. Chad is the Staff Attorney for Polk County Public Schools, a position he has held since 2022. Chad served as the Senior Legislative Aide to former Florida Senator Kelli Stargel from 2014-2022. He is a member and past president of the Polk County Lawyers Chapter of the Federalist Society, a member of the Rotary Club of Winter Haven, and active in lay ministries at St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Chad also serves as the Winter Haven Commission Liaison to:

- Cultural Arts Advisory Committee (CAAC)
- Multimodal Transportation Advisory Committee (MTAC)
- Planning Commission